

Damro Opens its New Branch at Hebbal, Bangalore

Bangalore – Karnataka – India – 04.12.2018 – Whether it is a new home, office, or workplace, or even a renovated one, it is the intelligent and innovative use of furniture that renders it most habitable and work-friendly. It does not mean that one should go for expensive furniture without looking at their usefulness and usability and their impact on the environment of the place where they are set up. It is always a tricky proposition selecting the ideal furniture tailor made for the purpose for which they are set up. However, accessing a reliable and reputable furniture provider can easily resolve most of the issues faced by the prospective buyers.

And when it comes to that Damro India could easily turn out to be the one point solution for the buyers around. Over the years the company has been supplying retail as well as wholesale bulk furniture for clients to the best of their satisfaction. With a growing reputation all over the world, Damro has been able to secure its position as one of the best and largest manufacturers and suppliers of all types of furniture for the customers. Whether it is individual use or corporate needs the company has everything to offer.

Largest furniture manufacturer of South East Asia, Damro has been consistently expanding its operational areas over the last few years. A new addition to the list is Hebbal in Bangalore where the company is opening its new showroom. There is also reason for taking such decision. Hebbal is famous for the Hebbal Lake and has one of the best environments around near the city of Bangalore. It is also strategically located and connected to most important points of the city through the network and a host of flyovers connecting the Outer Ring Road and Bellary Road. For this it is one of the prime locations for residential and commercial constructions and many new houses and offices are coming up in the area. People occupying these places need furniture to make them habitable and workable. Naturally, Damro, as the leading furniture manufacturers and supplier in India could not stay behind in exploring the vast potential the site offered. Also success for the company is a foregone conclusion because of the huge reputation it has built up in the market.

“ That is why Damro has come up with its new branch in Hebbal in Bangalore with the intention to provide quality services to the customers there at the most competitive prices and providing best services available in the industry”, commented the Branch Manager, Damro, Hebbal Branch.

About Damro India

Damro is the largest manufacturer and supplier of all types of furniture in South East Asia. Since its inception in 1986 the company has seen unique growth and expansion due to high quality and widely diversified products. They have achieved such success using the simple formula of combining high quality products with affordable prices as well as most efficient customer-care services. These principles will also apply in case of their new branch at Hebbal in Bangalore.